Standing Resolution

Motion

BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Accessible Education Working Group be struck with terms of reference as attached.

Purpose:

The purpose of this working group will be to examine how students feel about the affordability and accessibility of education at the University of Manitoba, and address these concerns by advocating for a set of improvements by both the University of Manitoba and the Provincial Government.

Composition:

- UMSU President – Chair (non-voting)
- UMSU VP Advocacy – Ex officio (non-voting)
- UMSU VP External - Ex officio (non-voting)
- Senior Stick or designate from each faculty association (voting)
- Any interested UMSU member (voting)

Responsibilities:

- Conduct a survey of UMSU Members to determine major strategic priorities with regards to accessible and affordable education
- Create a list of advocacy items to present to university administration and/or provincial government
- Objectives may be related to cost of course materials, financial aid, tuition fees and any other issues deemed necessary by the working group
- Present a year end report to be ratified by UMSU's Board of Directors as advocacy items to be carried out by the UMSU Executive

Meeting Regularity:

Monthly in summer, Bi-weekly in Fall and Winter
Term is from June 21, 2018 – May 1, 2019
