Article VIII. Elections and Terms of Office

Section 8.01. Elections for Executive positions shall take place during the final UMASA General Meeting of the academic year before the end of classes in April, so as to ensure that programming for the following academic year is set in place prior to September.

(a) The term shall be one year.

(b) The incoming Executive shall assume office May 1st.

Section 8.02. Elections for Committee positions shall take place during the first UMASA General Meeting of the academic year which will be held after the start of courses in September, so as to ensure that incoming students and new members have the opportunity to become involved in the Department of Anthropology and UMASA organization and governance.

(a) The term shall be one year.

(b) The incoming Committee positions shall commence their responsibilities immediately following the election in the fall term.

Section 8.03. Only graduate students shall vote on the positions of Vice President, Graduate and Vice President, Graduate - UMGSa Liaison. Only undergraduate members shall vote on the position of Vice President, Undergraduate. Only members who self-identify as Indigenous shall vote on the position of Indigenous Representative.

Section 8.04. Members with elected positions may seek re-election.

Section 8.05. UMASA shall elect by a simple majority vote. In the case of a tie, the position shall be decided by a simple runoff election between the tied candidates. For any position to be filled by acclamation, the election shall be decided by a simple majority vote of the existing members.

Section 8.06. Prior to both elections (Executive & Committee), the current Executive shall appoint a Chief Returning Officer (CRO) to oversee the elections. The CRO does not have to be a member of UMASA and cannot be a person who is running in the election.

(a) The duties of the CRO are to:

- i. Oversee and administer the elections for UMASA.
- ii. Publicize the elections to the membership of UMASA.
- iii. Hear and decide on any appeals or complaints related to the elections.
- iv. Oversee and administer the counting of ballots for the elections and retention of ballots until the next election.
- v. Announce the results of the elections and inform UMSU of who next year's Executive will be, inform all UMASA members, and inform the University of Manitoba Anthropology Department Faculty and Staff.

Section 8.07. Voting for the upcoming year's Executive will be conducted as follows:

- (a) Candidates who wish to be nominated for elected positions should inform the CRO during the designated pre-election period, and must be a member in good standing of UMASA at the time of their nomination.
- (b) The CRO will collect a brief biography and campaign platform from each candidate and distribute them in an e-mail to all members of UMASA prior to voting.
- (c) Voting will be held at the last UMASA General Meeting of the academic year and will be held on the University of Manitoba Campus in a room accessible to all members of the group.
- (d) The ballots will be collected by the CRO and counted.
- (e) Results will be sent to candidates, Anthropology Department staff and faculty, and to all UMASA members via email.

Section 8.08. Voting for the year's Committees will be conducted as follows:

- (a) Candidates who wish to be nominated for elected positions should inform the CRO during the designated pre-election period, and must be a member in good standing of UMASA at the time of their nomination.
- (b) The CRO will collect a brief biography and campaign platform from each candidate and distribute them in an e-mail to all members of UMASA prior to voting.
- (c) Voting will be held at the first UMASA General Meeting of the academic year and will be held on the University of Manitoba Campus in a room accessible to all members of the group.
- (d) The ballots will be collected by the CRO and counted.
- (e) Results will be sent to candidates and UMASA members via email.

Section 8.09. Absentee Votes:

- (a) UMASA membership may elect to send in their votes electronically via email directly to the CRO email.
- (b) The CRO will continue to collect absentee votes via email until the beginning of the meeting wherein the positions being voted upon are being decided.

Article IX. Transition of Executive

Section 9.01. During the transitional periods when the new Executive will assume office, it is the duty of the departing Executive to orient the newly elected Executive officers to their UMASA responsibilities. This includes orienting the incoming Executive about the student group and about UMSU and UMGSA policies and procedures, transitioning custodianship of UMASA records and materials, and preparing the new Executive to be effective in their roles for the next year's work.

Section 9.02. It is the responsibility of the departing President(s) to ensure that all student requirements to UMSU, including submission of a complete annual report and the removal of all student group records and materials from the UMASA office and locker, have been fulfilled before the incoming Executive assumes office.

Section 9.03. It is the responsibility of the departing President(s) and Treasurer to bring all accounts up to date and to prepare any required financial statements of the group. In addition, the outgoing President(s) and Treasurer must arrange with the respective incoming Executive for the transition of the UMASA bank accounts into the incoming President's and Treasurer's names. These tasks are to be completed and their outputs delivered to the new Executive.

Section 9.04. It is the responsibility of the incoming Executive to assume custody of all UMASA records and materials and accountability for all financial activities of the student group and for all group requirements to UMSU.

Article X. Meetings

Section 10.01. The General Meetings of UMASA shall be conducted at least two times in each of the fall and winter terms, at a time and place designated by the President(s) and will be held on the University of Manitoba campus in a room accessible to all members of the group. General meetings will be open to University of Manitoba Anthropology Department students and/or anyone else interested, although voting privileges are reserved for UMASA members in good standing (see Article IV, Section 4.04).

Section 10.02. Executive meetings may be called when deemed necessary and will be held at least once per academic term. All members of the Executive are expected to be in attendance. Failure to attend any two consecutive Executive meetings or any three Executive meetings per academic term without having provided a legitimate reason to the President(s) within 48 hours of the missed meeting may result in the Executive member being relieved of their Executive duties, subject to the discretion of the membership.

Section 10.03. All UMASA meetings shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order 11th edition (see <http://www.robertsrules.com/>) for details.

Section 10.04. The quorum for regular meetings of UMASA shall be 25% of the total voting membership.

Section 10.05. Notice of upcoming General Meetings shall be made no less than two weeks in advance of the meeting.

Section 10.06. Agenda(s), previous minutes, and any relevant documents for any meeting being held by UMASA must be sent out to relevant members no later than one week before the meeting occurs.

Article XI. Amendments to the Constitution

Section 11.01. In recognition of the flexible nature of UMASA, the constitution should, upon recommendation of any member, be reviewed and amended whenever necessary.

Section 11.02. The proposed changes must be made available to all members of the group at least two weeks before the meeting, and require the support of at least 2/3rds of the members present and voting at the meeting.

Section 11.03. The amended Constitution shall be prepared and an electronic copy will be given to each member of the UMASA and will be posted on the UMASA website.

Section 11.04. A copy of the amended constitution must be submitted to UMSU within two weeks of the meeting by the Social and Fundraising Director who is the UMASA and UMSU liaison.

Article XII. Common Space in N300 Duff Roblin

Section 12.01. The use of the Anthropology Department common room in Duff Roblin is understood to be a privilege for Anthropology Department students and rules governing its use shall be respected at all times.

Section 12.02. The common space rules will be posted in the room at all times and shall be respected.

Section 12.03. The rules shall be written by the Anthropology Department in conjunction with UMASA.
