New Updates

SEA Meeting

- After concerns brought forward from associations, I decided to send out a survey to Student Associations regarding SEA meetings.
- The survey is to understand what you would like to be seen in the SEA meetings and will be used to make communication efficient.
- Please take time and fill them out, it takes about 2 minutes.

Club Orientation

- On October 26th, we held an Orientation for clubs where they were taught about the different services they can use and how to use them.
- Mathew, Services coordinator is already working on a Student club manual and guide for all clubs to reference in the future and one that can be altered if there are changes.

Hardship Fund

- Finance Committee approved an additional $7500 to be allocated to the Hardship Fund.

Continuing Updates

Indigenous Students Month

- November 14th we will be having a keynote speech and a performance from Chelazon Leroux, A Two-Spirit Drag Queen. They were on Canada's Drag Race Season 3.
- Time is 5:30pm in MPR. Cost is $5 with half the proceeds going to ISM Bursary.
- Also look out for Nov 25th Indigenous Students Month Celebration & Market, 5pm-8pm, Location confirmed as MPR.
- If you know any Dancers, Drummers, Beaders or Vendors who you would love to see, please send them the form or the Instagram Poster.

Mental Health Campaign

- A reminder that we shall be launching our Mental Health Exhibit Nov 15th in MPR at 6pm so please be there.
- It's a free event. Also please remember to share with students in your faculty.
- Met with Mental Health Working Group and have some individuals interested.
- If you would love to share your experience with Mental Health and participate in our Photo Shoot and testimonials, please reach out to me.
