

New Updates

Community Groups Coordinator

- In an effort to support the community representatives, we are looking for a community groups coordinator (part-time position) to assist with the daily operations of the community group centres.
- Some of the responsibilities include CIF and budget funding assistance, resource and support guidance for students visiting the centres, and assisting in completing projects and planning events.
- The full job description can be found at <https://umsu.ca/job-opportunities/>

Winter Clothing Library

- The International Centre is organizing a Winter Clothing Library to provide donated winter clothing to new international and exchange students.
- The library will be open on October 18th at the International Centre Office, 541 UMSU University Centre, from 10am-3pm, Monday to Friday.
- We are accepting gently used or in good condition winter jackets, sweaters, winter pants, winter boots, and winter accessories.
- Items must be freshly washed and stored in a clear plastic bag with a label of what type of clothing and the size.
- Donations can be dropped off at the UMSU Service Centre, International Community Centre, Rainbow Pride Centre, or the International Centre Office.

Campaigns

Healthy Sexuality Week

- Due to the complexity of STBBI testing we wanted to accomplish, we will be postponing STBBI testing to a later date.
- Thank you to SERC (Sexuality Education Resource Centre) for hosting two educational workshops this week, on Healthy Relationships & Consent and Sexual & Reproductive, Health, Pregnancy & Birth Control, STIs/HIV.
- Thank you to Rainbow Pride Centre, Women's Centre, Sexual Violence Resource Centre and Safer Social Events Team for tabling throughout that week and providing their resources on healthy sexuality.
